

CCISD October 9th Area-Wide In-Service Sessions

STEM in a Remote Learning World (8:00 a.m.— 9:00 a.m.)

Chris Woods

STEM is not just robots and 3d printing. In this session, participants will consider how to leverage student interests & passions to build a well-rounded culture of STEM education in every classroom and community.

Chris Woods has over 20 years of experience teaching high school Mathematics with most of those years at Calumet HS. Chris published his first book this year, featuring ways to create a STEM culture in your classroom. Chris hosts a weekly podcast called STEM Everyday where he interviews educators who are using STEM in and out of classrooms.
