

STANTON TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS

Middle School ELA Teacher Wanted

District Profile:

Stanton Township Public Schools is a small rural district located on the beautiful Keweenaw Peninsula in west-central Houghton County. Our 30-acre campus is located minutes from both the Lake Superior shoreline and the city of Houghton. Our location is an adventurer's paradise with amazing opportunities for hiking, mt. biking, sea kayaking, cross-country, and downhill skiing, as well as fishing and hunting. In addition, the Houghton area is home to Michigan Technological University and the headquarters for Isle Royale National Park.

Stanton Township Public Schools has a welcoming and family-like atmosphere. Our professional staff works in close collaboration and in a supportive environment. The district is known for its place-based education and involvement in the Lake Superior Stewardship Initiative. The 30+ acre campus consists of typical schoolyard areas but also includes land that the school is using for forest management, gardening, beekeeping, and disc golf.
